by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-103(a)(1)(A), is amended by adding the following language as a new subdivision (iii):

(iii) In addition to the submission deadline described in subdivision (a)(1)(A)(i), a nonprofit organization seeking to operate an annual event for the benefit of that organization located in this state may submit an annual event application to the secretary within five (5) calendar days after the effective date of this act, for the annual event period beginning July 1, 2017, and ending June 30, 2018.

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-103(a)(1), is amended by deleting subdivision (B) and substituting instead the following:

For purposes of the submission deadline, the postmark date on the annual event application is deemed to be the date of submission; provided, that, for the purposes of the submission deadline pursuant to subdivisions (a)(1)(A)(ii) and (iii), an annual event application is not deemed to be submitted to the secretary until in the physical possession of the secretary as evidenced by the secretary's date and time endorsement on such documentation.

SECTION 3. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-103(b), is amended by adding the following language as a new subdivision (3):

(3) In addition to the omnibus lists transferred to the clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives pursuant to subdivision (b)(1), the secretary shall transfer an additional omnibus listing of any organizations approved pursuant to subdivision (a)(1)(A)(iii) for the annual event period beginning July 1, 2017, and ending

June 30, 2018. The list must be transferred in a manner consistent with subdivision (b)(1) by twelve o'clock (12:00) noon central daylight time (CDT) within seven (7) calendar days after the effective date of this act.

SECTION 4. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-104(c), is amended by deleting subdivision (1) and substituting instead the following:

An initial application fee of fifty dollars ($50.00) must be paid at the time of submission of an annual event application. An annual event application must not be accepted by the secretary unless accompanied by the initial application fee.

SECTION 5. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-106(a), is amended by deleting subdivision (1) and substituting instead the following:

An organization authorized by the general assembly to operate an annual event shall file, within ninety (90) calendar days following the actual event date, a financial accounting with the secretary in accordance with this section. An organization shall remit to the secretary the full application fee specified pursuant to § 3-17-104(c)(2), less the initial application fee paid pursuant to § 3-17-104(c)(1) with the submission of the financial accounting. A financial accounting must not be accepted by the secretary unless accompanied by the fees required pursuant to § 3-17-104(c).

SECTION 6. Tennessee Code Annotated, Section 3-17-106, is amended by deleting subdivision (g)(2) in its entirety.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

SECTION 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Contract Accountability and Responsible Employment (CARE) Act."

SECTION 2. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 12, Chapter 3, Part 3, is amended by adding the following new section:

(a) As used in this section, "state agency" also includes institutions of higher education. "State agency" does not include the department of treasury, the Tennessee financial literacy commission, the Tennessee consolidated retirement system, or any office of a constitutional officer of this state.

(b) Prior to the procurement of a contract for services between a state agency and a private party in excess of two and one-half million dollars ($2,500,000) and that results in the layoff or furlough of one (1) or more state employees, the state agency shall produce an economic impact statement using professionally accepted methodologies. The economic impact statement must include the information identified in § 4-33-104(b).

(c) An economic impact statement produced under subsection (b) must be submitted to the fiscal review committee for dissemination to the members of the general assembly no less than forty-five (45) days prior to the execution of the contract.

(d) Upon receipt of an economic impact statement under subsection (c), the chair of the fiscal review committee may schedule a hearing to review the economic impact statement.

(e) A state agency notified of a hearing conducted under subsection (d) shall provide the fiscal review committee, upon request, any information reasonably related to the proposed contract that the committee deems relevant; provided, that a state agency is not required to produce privileged information or any record that is not open for public inspection pursuant to state law.

(f) Upon compliance with subsections (b) and (c), nothing in this section prohibits a state agency from executing a proposed contract for services that is subject to this section.

(g) This section applies only to contracts procured on and after the effective date of this act, and does not apply to any contract for services executed on or before the effective date of this act, including, but not limited to, any option for renewal or extension of such contract.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect upon becoming a law, the public welfare requiring it.

House Bill No. 1409

by deleting all language after the enacting clause and substituting instead the following:

SECTION 1. Tennessee Code Annotated, Title 8, Chapter 23, Part 2, is amended by adding the following new section:

(a) As used in this section:

(1) "Appointing authority" means a person within a state agency having power to make appointments to, and separations from, positions in state service;

(2) "Hazardous duty position" means a position in the service of this state that requires the performance of a hazardous duty; and

(3) "State agency" means an authority, board, branch, commission, committee, department, division, or other instrumentality of this state.

(b)

(1) Each commissioner of a department of state government may, in consultation with its appointing authorities and employees, develop standards for identifying hazardous duty positions within the department and categorizing working conditions not common to a class of employees as mildly hazardous, moderately hazardous, and severely hazardous. If a commissioner develops standards and categories under this subdivision (b)(1), the commissioner shall consult with, and solicit input from, the commissioners of finance and administration and human resources.

(2) Upon determining that a state employee or class of employees is eligible for a hazardous salary adjustment under this section, the appointing authority may apply to the appropriate commissioner for the salary adjustment and shall, for each such application, provide sufficient evidence and documentation to substantiate the claim for the hazardous salary adjustment.

(3) Upon review of an application submitted under subdivision (b)(2), a commissioner may approve a hazardous salary adjustment for a qualified employee or class of employees.

(4) Each claim for a hazardous salary adjustment must be submitted as a separate application.

(5) The commissioners of finance and administration and human resources may audit any claim to determine whether a hazardous salary adjustment was appropriate.

(c) When the working conditions of a state employee are exceptionally hazardous and fall within one (1) of the categories for hazardous working conditions developed under subdivision (b)(1), the state employee may receive, upon approval in accordance with subdivision (b)(3), a hazardous salary adjustment granted only for the time the employee is subjected to hazardous working conditions.

(d) For purposes of approving a hazardous salary adjustment under subdivision (b)(3), a state employee is entitled to:

(1) A hazardous salary adjustment of five percent (5%) of the employee's base salary for those hours worked under mildly hazardous conditions;

(2) A hazardous salary adjustment of seven and one-half percent (7.5%) of the employee's base salary for those hours worked under moderately hazardous conditions; and

(3) A hazardous salary adjustment of ten percent (10%) of the employee's base salary for those hours worked under severely hazardous conditions.

(e) A state agency shall compensate a former state employee for any approved hazardous salary adjustment for work performed regardless of whether approval occurs after the state employee transfers to another state agency or is separated from service.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect July 1, 2018, the public welfare requiring it.
